O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Psalms 104:24

*You satisfy the hungry heart with gift of finest wheat;
come give to us, O saving Lord, the bread of life to eat.*

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,

we trust in the one true God,
whom alone we worship and serve.

Call to Prayer

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

+Sung Response

*You satisfy the hungry heart with gift of finest wheat;
come give to us, O saving Lord, the bread of life to eat.*

Prayer for Wholeness

We cannot love God unless we love each other;
and to love each other, we must know each other in the breaking of bread.

And then, we are not alone anymore.

Heaven is a banquet, and life is a banquet, too

– even with just a crust –

where there is companionship.

Love comes with community.

From food, all creatures are produced; by food, all creatures that dwell on earth live; into food, they finally pass.

THE DIVINE RE-ALIGNMENT: Sabbatical Year Teachings about Work, Wealth and Land.

Through Thanksgiving, our worship will explore the teachings of Shmita, also known as the Jewish Sabbatical Year. Jewish tradition began a Sabbatical Year on September 7, 2001. What lessons might Protestant Christians in the United States (especially in the COVID era) take from the shared biblical teachings that undergird this contemporary practice?

2022 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN:
WE ARE CALLED. All households in the congregation should have received a mailing inviting financial support for both the Operating Fund and the Building Fund. If you have not received your mailing, please contact the church office. Please prayerfully consider the contribution God is calling you to make and return your pledge card by October 31.

2021 PEACE AND GLOBAL WITNESS OFFERING collected through October. 75% is used by the Presbyterian Mission Agency, Synods, and Presbyteries to advocate for peace and justice in cultures of violence, including our own, through collaborative projects of education and Christian witness. 25% will support a Habitat for Humanity Project in Shepherdstown.

When I am hungry,
The villagers fill my begging bowl
With rice.

Thirsty, I turn toward
The cattle troughs, wells,
And streams.

For my sleep,
Abandoned temples
Are blanket enough.

And when I am lonely,
O white Jasmine Lord,
My soul deepens
with You.
